

2011 4th Annual Addiction Symposium: “Walking the Tight Rope of Chronic Pain Management”

8:00 - 8:30

Registration & Breakfast

Opening Comments by Tom Mitchell begin at 8:25

8:30 - 8:45

Introduction including case study review - presented by William Loving, MD,

Master of Ceremony

8:45 - 10:15

“Pain and Addiction: Challenges and Controversies”

presented by Mel Pohl, MD

10:15 - 10:30

Break

10:30 - 11:30

“Interdisciplinary Pain Management”

presented by Krista Jordan, PhD

11:30 - 1:00

Lunch & Presentation

“Toward a More Effective Strategy for Assessing Pain”

Terry A. Rustin, MD

1:00 - 2:30

“Adjunct Therapies During Early Recovery”

presented by Bill Nemeth, MD

2:30 - 3:00

Break

3:00 - 4:00

“Dual Diagnosis in Chronic Pain”

presented by Reid Minot, APRN

4:00 - 4:15

Closing including case study review & Distribution of CEU/CMEs